Open Wide Your Heart

As a fair exchange - I speak to you as my children - open wide your hearts also. 2 Corinthians 6:13

We are commanded to open our hearts onto God, to one another and onto the world. How do we do this.

There was a movement started a few years back about random acts of kindness in which people take time to do the little things in life that stand out and make another's life a bit lighter for the day.

Let's bring it back for the summer? What do you think? :-)

Pastor Chris assumes a leadership role at Crossroads Mission

Pastor Chris has accepted a leadership role at Crossroads mission.

The mission supports nearly 200 individuals each week with it's clothes closet, food pantry, showers and laundry facilities.

There is a continued need for food and clothing within the mission as well as staffing needs. Reach out to Chris and Terry for further information.

Is there a way to pray in which we can see our prayers answered more often in the affirmative? I think the answer is yes, there may be. And I think we can find some answers in what we call the Lord's Prayer. This is a glorious prayer, a very familiar one that Jesus gave us.

"Father, hallowed be Your name. Your kingdom come. Your will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us each day our daily bread. Forgive us our sins, for we also forgive everyone who sins against us. And lead us not into temptation." (Luke 11:2-4 NIV)

It is not just a prayer to recite verbatim, although there is nothing wrong with that. Rather, it is a template for prayer, a model for prayer.

Notice this prayer begins with, "Father, hallowed be Your name. Your kingdom come. Your will be done." This reminds us that to see our prayers answered in the affirmative more often, we need to pray according to the will of God.

The primary objective of prayer is to align our will with the will of God. That is when we will see our prayers answered in the affirmative. It has been said that prayer is not overcoming God's reluctance; it is laying hold of his willingness. Prayer is not getting our will in heaven; it is getting God's will on earth.

And how do we know what God's will is? It is through careful reading and study of the Bible. As you study Scripture, you will discover God's plan, his purpose and his will.
